Mr. Robert Jacobsen
1927 Martin Avenue
Berkeley, CA 94707-2407

Dear Mr. Jacobsen:

We have again reviewed your JMRI software and it appears that you have not yet modified the code in order to no longer infringe KAM's patents, as previously suggested.

We are somewhat perplexed by your non-responsiveness. We outlined in good faith why your software infringes, and pursuant to your request, provided a detailed analysis. While you profess to respect intellectual property, it appears that your continued sale and distribution of the software without any regard to KAM Industries' intellectual property rights, does not hold this to be true. We also note that Sourceforge infringes as well, by distributing the JMRI software.

Enclosed is an updated invoice.

Please let me know immediately on which day you will cease distributing infringing software.

Sincerely,

Kevin L. Russell
